Dear Heads and Directors of International Relations of AUN member universities,

I am writing this message to inform you of Okayama University Summer Program (June 22 to July 14, 2017) and to extend an invitation for applications from undergraduate students from AUN member universities. The theme of the program is "The Environment and People in Globalization." I appreciate your kind assistance in distributing the flyer to students interested in an opportunity for summer short-term study abroad in Japan. Scholarships may be available for qualified participants. Please follow the URLs below for more information.

Details about the program:

About the Center of Global Partnerships and Education at Okayama University:

About Okayama University:

http://www.okayama-u.ac.jp/index_e.htmlPlease note that the deadline is extended to April 26, 2017 for AUN member universities

Okayama University is one of the top research national universities in Japan. Because the theme of the summer program is specifically designed to match our strengths in research and education, this program will provide students from abroad with an excellent educational opportunity to work with our top faculty members who are experts in the fields of humanities, social sciences, engineering, natural science, and medicine. Participants will also be offered Japanese language lessons as well as cultural experience in Okayama. Exchange activities with Okayama University students will also be arranged in order for participants to prepare their final presentations for the International Conference for the Future Generation of the World Leader 2017.

Okayama University has had the special honor of being one of the few higher education institutions selected by the Japan Ministry of Education, Culture, Sports, Science and Technology (MEXT) as a Super Global University. Our President, the faculty, and staff members have been working vigorously for promoting campus-wide internationalization.

We sincerely hope that this summer program will open a new door of partnership development between Okayama University and AUN member universities. We are very much looking forward to welcoming students from AUN member universities in Okayama this June.

Best regards,
Pasita
